Portfolio Management

It's the organization of an investor's financial assets to reduce risk and maximize return. This involves making calculated, informed decisions about investments and using trading strategies.

MAM/PAMM Accounts

It's Multi-Account-Manager and is designed for fund and money managers to trade on behalf of multiple clients for a % of the profits. This makes it easy for money managers to execute block trades for multiple clients at the same time, and easily manage risk from one account.

Crypto Mining

Crypto mining is the process of validating a cryptocurrency transaction. Cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin use distributed public ledgers to record all financial transactions. Each transaction is linked to the previous and subsequent transactions, which creates a chain of time-stamped records called a blockchain.
